

To change your preferred address:

Go to njea.org and locate the Sign In box in the right column that says "Just for Members." Type in your PIN (on your membership card) or your e-mail address (if it's on file with NJEA) and your password (the last four digits of your Social Security number unless you've changed it) and click "Sign in." You will notice the Sign In box now has three buttons – "My Web Apps," "My NJEA," and "My Profile," click on "My Profile" and review your information. Use the edit button to make changes, and click Save when you are finished. Changes will automatically be updated in NJEA's membership database.

NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

ABOUT NEWS & PUBLICATIONS TEACHING & LEARNING PARENTS & COMMUNITY ISSUES & POLITICAL ACTION RESOURCES MEMBERS

Member Action Center The issues change often, but the fact remains: public education is under attack in New Jersey. Visit the Member Action Center for information on the latest attacks and tools to help you fight back. Then stand up for public education by contacting your elected representatives. Read More

NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

News & Publications Teaching & Learning Issues & Political Action Parents & Community

Newest NJEA TV ad hits Christie on vouchers NJEA has launched another new TV ad taking Governor Christie to task for supporting a $1 billion private school voucher plan for New Jersey. It joins another ad criticizing Christie for cutting more than $1 billion from public schools while giving millionaires a tax cut. Read More

NJEA responds to Christie ABC comments

'He's ducking responsibility'

NJEA President Barbara Keshishian responded swiftly to comments Gov. Chris Christie made in an interview with ABC News anchor Diane Sawyer earlier today. "Governor Christie's name-calling is a tired attempt to draw attention away from the fact that he chose to cut taxes for millionaires, rather than fund the state's public schools," said Keshishian. Read More

New Pride TV ads highlight NJ public schools' #1 ranking NJEA has unveiled new PRIDE in Public Education TV ads which highlight New Jersey public school students' top rankings. The ads are part of NJEA's long-standing campaign to educate the public about the high quality of New Jersey's public schools. Read More

More News

JUST FOR MEMBERS

Sign in to get information and resources just for NJEA members.

your email or pin

your password

Need help signing in?

FEATURED VIDEO

Deptford Mall Grade-In
Frank McCulley and 106 of his colleagues converged on the Deptford Mall food court, took a seat and for...
[\[more\]](#)